

PARTICIPANT AGREEMENT FORM

I understand that Annemarie Douglas collecting data in the form of recorded interviews for use in an academic research project based in Edinburgh Theological Seminary as part of an Master of Theology in Missiology awarded by the Faculty of Arts and Humanities at the University of Glasgow.

I have read the information sheet outlining the project and its methods and had the opportunity to ask any questions arising from that.

I consent to participate in the interviews on the following terms:

1. I can leave any question unanswered.
2. The interview can be paused or stopped at any point.

I agree to the processing of data for this project on the following terms:

1. Use and storage of research data in the University of Glasgow reflects the institution's educational/ research mission and its legal responsibilities in relation to both information security and scrutiny of researcher conduct.
  - a. As part of this, under UK legislation (UK General Data Protection Regulation [UK GDPR]), I understand and accept that the lawful basis for the processing of personal data is that the project constitutes a public task, and that any processing of special category data is 'necessary for archiving purposes in the public interest, or scientific and historical research'.
  - b. I understand that I have the right to access data relating to me or that I have provided and to object where I have reason to believe it has been misused or used for purposes other than those stated.
  - c. Project materials in both physical and electronic form will be treated as confidential and kept in secure storage (locked physical storage; appropriately encrypted, password-protected devices and University user accounts) at all times.
2. Interviews will be transcribed and the recordings deleted when the dissertation is submitted.
